BRainerd, MINN.

A DEMOTED clergyman wandered from home, and on finding himself in Chicago, committed suicide.

STERN justice is costly sometimes. Stern county, California, paid $300, the cost of prosecuting a man for stealing 60 cents, and he was acquitted.

RICHMOND ore has been struck in San Ysidro mine, a few miles below Ensenada, Lower California. A vein, 1,000 feet long and 60 feet deep has been found.

A CHINESE laundryman in Tom Green County, Texas, advertises his establishment in the newspaper of the county with display type and a quarter-column humorous cut showing the Mexican men driving in donkey carts to his store.

The problem of the settlement of the troubles in Ireland has now passed out of the sentimental stage and become a financial one. Who is going to receive contributions and disburse them judiciously? Without money there can be no successful party maintained in Parliament.

QUEEN VICTORIA is as yet undecided as to whom she will select as the poet laureate successor to Lord Tennyson. It will relieve the good old lady's mind Uncle Sam will slip her a few loads of versinging muscans for whom he has no use and will gladly pay the freight.

A NEGRO who applied for shelter at a poorhouse in Tennessee the other day says he is 105 years old. He says that his uncle of the same name lived to be 130 years old. A grandfather was 125 years old when he died, and a grandmother 118. The old man smokes and drinks and eats heartily.

WHATEVER may be true of the ruin wrought by "Chinese cheap labor" in the days when Ah Sin played that famous game of cards, the Chinese in the eastern states are fairly well paid for their work. Chinese laundrymen charge nearly or quite current market rates for their work, and Chinese cooks, whether in New York or in California, demand comparatively high wages.

SCRANTON has a remarkable wheel which weighs 400,000 pounds. It is a cog wheel, fifty four feet in diameter and eighteen inches face, and has a capacity of 30,000,000 gallons of water and 2000 tons of sand per twenty-four hours, run at a velocity of ten feet a second on the inner edge of the bucket. The total length of the shaft is twenty-three feet and six inches.

LAWYER RINGROSE of New Haven, Conn., became infatuated with a female witness who foiled him on a cross-examination and wedded her in haste, thereby making reasonable a change of his name to Ringrose. She was a sort of a grass widow prosecuting a husband for theft, with a divorce suit on the side, and Ringrose was the man's attorney.

IT is said that between the island of Madagascar and the coast of India there are 16,000 islands, only 600 of which are inhabited. On any of these islands a man can live and support his family in princely luxury, without working more than twenty-five days in the year. In fact, on some of these islands, he need not work at all, as nature provides the food and his clothes are required.

THERE is a popular notion that a spider is popular on the streets are cheaper than like articles in shops, but exactly the reverse is true. Shoe laces, for example, sell upon the streets at from five to twenty-five cents a pair, while they may be bought in the larger shops at from ten cents to $1 per dozen pairs. The same is true of suspenders and of other small articles of personal wear.

The residents of Los Gatos, Cal., were much interested recently in a peculiar vehicle. It had wheels at one end and a sled at the other, not for alternate snow and bare ground, but for a wagon up hill and sled down, the road being shifted as one or the other was met. Ten years since, says a correspondent from that place, hardly any other conveyance was seen; hundreds of elegant equipages are now seen every day.

Big game is still plentiful in Bosnia and Herzegovina. The provincial authorities have assigned a small capital grant for the killing of dangerous wild beasts, and so can tell approximately how many are put out of the way each year. According to the records there were slain in 1887, 130 bears; in 1888, 1,000 wolves; in 1889, 1,000 bears; in 1890, 1,000 bears; in 1891, 1,000 bears; in 1892, 1,000 bears; in 1893, 1,000 bears; in 1894, 1,000 bears; "I am a-pinin'."

The master of ceremonies takes it up and the following dialogue and interlocation takes place:

"Miss Arabella Jane Aphthorp says she's a-pinin'. What is Miss Arabella Jane Aphthorp-a-pinin' fur?"

"I'm a-pinin' fur a sweet kiss."

"I'm a-pinin' fur a sweet kiss from Mr. Hugh Waddle." (Blushes, convulsive giggles and a confusion on the part of Miss Arabella Jane Apthorp at this forced confession.) Mr. Hugh Waddle walks up manfully and relieves the

Then a young man will betaken with a sudden and unaccountable "pinin'," which after the usual exchanges of questions and volunteered information reveals the name of the maiden, who causes the "gawin" and "pinin'." She coyly retreats out doors, only to bechased, overtaken, captured and forcibly enroled to the bride.

At one of these entertainments, which it was the narrator's fortune to attend, there was a remarkable beautiful young woman who had been married about a month. Her husband was present, a huge, beetle-browed, black-eyed mountaineer, with a fist like a ham. The boys fought shy of the bride for fear of incurring the anger of the hulking spouse. The game

"My wife ez pooty, 'n ez nice 'n sweet ez any gyrl hyar. Yoa uns has known her all her life. This game hez ben a-goin' on half an hour an' nobody has pined for her onet. Ef someone dosen't pine fur her pooty soon thar will be trouble."

KEEPING BOARDERS.

Some Valuable Hints to Boarding-house Keepers.

A woman who keeps boarders is successful just in proportion as she pays attention to three of the most important things in the house, says the Home Journal: Good cooking, an attractive table and cleanliness in her rooms. These are the chief things to mean lavishness of material, but the best of what is given, and care in its preparation. No matter if you have smaller quantities, have the quality good. A medium-sized tenderloin, bone carefully to a rich brown, even if there is less of it, will meet with more appreciation at the table than eight pounds of leather-stake so thin that it curls up on the platter. Potatoes, though they are the staff of life, become more than tiresome when each the same fashion. Surely, there is enough methods of serving potatoes to secure variety to the eye and appetite to the palate. Variety is the very life of a table, and it seems strange that so few of the women who preside over boarding houses realize this fact. An appetite is created in proportion to the extent to which it is catered. The sense of taste is the most delicate member of the human body. Please it, and you please the most important part of human desires. Expense is not ment. The pleasantest table I ever sat at was conducted on the same economical principles. But no one could judge the breakfast of tomorrow from the breakfast of to-day. Each meal was different from its predecessor, and yet economy was most successfully practiced. The secret of that table lay in its variety, and in the manner in which the things were served upon it.

Wholesale Punishment. d

It is doubtful if the most strenuous opponent of corporal punishment would feel that the chastisement mediated by Brer Tompkins, the father of thirteen children, was severe enough to do any harm.

He was seen one afternoon by his pastor, with a long fishing-rod in his hand, wending his way homeward from a neighbor's.

"What!" ejaculated the minister, in great surprise. "Is you'n' n' fishin' at

"No, I yaint gwine fishin,' sah," protested Mr. Tompkins. "I know twouldn't be seemly, sah; but yo' sarmon las' Sunday mawin' on spar in de rod med sech a 'pression on me, sah, dat I done borry dis rod ob Mr. Willis, an I'se, gwine t' stan' mah whole thutteen chillin' in a row, sah, and jes' mek one good job ob hit, so's dey wout neit spile; an I kin return de rod wid a clar conscience, sah!"

A light-hearted Parisian, M. Felix Deleuzy by name, adopted twelve years ago sixteen orphan girls, to whom he gave a home in his own handsome mansion, and he provided for their care and education a requisite number of servants and governesses. Being a widower and childless, he portioned out a large share of his immense fortune among the wards, who now arriving at woman's estate, are grate-hands. Five have chosen good husbands, received the dot of $400 bestowed by the foster-father, and gone from under his roof to make homes of their own. Two of them have taken the veil. Nine yet remain to choose their vocation or path in life, on which, like the king's son in the fairy tale, they will set out provided with a father's blessing wise counsel and a purse of gold.—Illustrated American.

in conjunction with M. Quindhard, M. Grehant has been measuring the effect of alcohol and other intoxicants on muscular power, the subject being a dog, and the muscle being the tendon of Achilles. Compressed oxygen reduced the muscular power to about half of the normal; alcohol, administered by injection to the point of drunkenness, reduced to the muscular power to about a third of the normal; and curare, administered by hypodermic injection, also reduced the muscular power to a much smaller fraction

A Useful Accomplishment.
 Father—"Johnny, there's a button off your coat. Go up stairs and sew it on."
 Little Johnny (in surprise)—"Mother will sew it on."
 Father—"I know she will, but I want you to learn to sew on buttons yourself."
 Johnny (amazed)—"Why?"

Local News Notes.

Wilson Theatre Co. next week.

Dr. Howes, of Grand Rapids, was in the city the first of the week.

H. C. Stivers attended the democratic pow wow in Minneapolis on Tuesday.

Mrs. T. L. McGinnis and sister, Miss Sadie Reilly, of Staples, were visiting friends in Brainerd last week.

Wm. Paine is repairing his residence property on Norwood street that was damaged by fire some time ago.

The old favorites, the Wilson Theatre Co., will be at the opera house next week. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

L. N. Smith and George Leopold, of Staples, came down to Brainerd on Sunday to get a taste of city life.

W. H. Oastine and Dan McIntosh returned on Wednesday night from their hunting trip up the river. They report a pleasant time.

From the Presto Change we learn that Chas. Kinkadee, of this city, has sold his interest in the meat market in that little village.

Mayor Hagberg says he is going to have special police in all parts of the city Halloween night. Boys, look out or you'll get pulled.

Archy Bondy, master mechanic, chief clerk at Livingston, Mont., was in the city last Friday and Saturday, renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. Wm. Tracy is so far recovered that she was able to go to Brainerd this week to spend a short time with her people.—Presto Change.

L. N. Smith returned from Canada Saturday, and is again attending to his large real estate and insurance business.—Presto Change.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a coffee on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 3rd, with Mrs. Olson, on Bluff Avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets north. All the ladies are cordially invited.

Misses Lulu and Jennie Young, of Pittsburg, Penn., arrived in the city Monday evening, and will remain here several weeks visiting their aunt, Mrs. M. McFadden.

Eight or ten couple of Brainerd young people went to Staples on Monday night to attend a dance given by the Sylvan Social Club of that little burg.

W. S. McClenahan, of Brainerd, who with a party has been hunting around Sandy Lake, passed through here on his way home Wednesday. He was not very enthusiastic.—Aitkin Age.

The members of St. Francis Catholic church will hold their annual bazaar at the roller skating rink for one week, commencing Monday, Nov. 16th, and concluding Saturday night, Nov. 21st.

Mr. Axel Magnuson and Miss Lena Gustafson, both of this city, were married at the residence of Mr. Pederson, on Tuesday, Oct. 27th, 1891, the Rev. O. J. Wagnild performing the ceremony.

The lumber firm of Laughlin & Billings, doing business near Ft. Ripley, in this county, has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. B. F. Laughlin continuing the business.

A cobweb basket social will be given to-night (Friday) by the ladies of the Baptist church, at the residence of Miss May Campbell, on Fourth street north. All are cordially invited to attend.

H. P. Swartz, of Crown Point, Ind., is in the city, the guest of his brother, M. K. Swartz. Mr. Swartz will remain about three weeks, spending most of his time hunting.

The Wilson Theatre Co. in an entirely new repertoire will appear next week. They are stronger and better than ever before. Don't fail to see them. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

All kinds of farm produce, hay, wood, etc., taken in exchange for blacksmithing at Burrell & Lynch's city shoeing shop, on Fifth street, between Laurel and Front streets.

Lawyer J. H. Warner, who was in partnership with J. N. True here some time ago, but who has resided in Yellow Medicine county for several months past, has moved back to this city and opened a law office.

M. K. Swartz has this week put in a fine oak show case in his drug store, which he will use to exhibit his large stock of musical instruments. He has also added a fine oak table and two show cases for fancy stationery to his store fixtures. They are a decided improvement.

C. B. King, for many years a resident of Brainerd, but lately general foreman of the shops at Livingston, Mont., was in the city the first of the week. He was on his way back to Livingston from Michigan, where he had taken his aged mother on account of her poor health while living in Montana.

Mrs. Magdalena Robinson, for many years proprietor of what is known as "Swartz's brick yard," in this city, has sold out all her property interests here, and is going out west with her husband and try farming for awhile. Her interest in the brick yard has been purchased by J. W. Koop, we understand.

The Augusta Ohrstrom Concert Co., at the opera house last Friday night, was greeted by a fair sized, though very appreciative audience. The company is an excellent one, every member being an artist of ability. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church, under whose auspices the concert was given, cleared nearly $40 by the venture.

Leopold Phaneuf, the Sixth street wagon maker and blacksmith, has sold his shop to J. Sears, of Little Falls, who will greatly enlarge the building by putting on an extension in the rear 30 feet long. This extension will be built to accommodate an engine and boiler to use in running the machinery of the shop. The greatly increasing business has made the introduction of steam power a necessity.

A. Atherton killed two bears on Little Lake on Tuesday.

The Duluth Tribune says that Dr. John R. Howes, of Grand Rapids, returned Wednesday from a visit to Washington.

Mr. J. B. Sargent and lady, who have been spending the summer on Gull Lake at their summer resort, have gone to Detroit.

To-morrow night is All Halloween night, and it behooves the average citizen to make fast his gate, or the small boy will carry it hence.

Mr. E. E. Warrne and Miss Lillie Berg, both of Garrison, this county, were married in this city on Tuesday evening, Oct. 27th. Judge C. E. Chipfield performing the ceremony.

Alderman F. M. Lagerquist has returned from his farm near Grand Forks, North Dakota, where he says that the total yield of wheat on his farm was 3,000 bushels, or 30 bushels to the acre. He suffered very little damage from the wet weather.

The Spokane Review, of last Sunday, contains a picture of P. Mertz, formerly of Brainerd, now chief of police of that bustling western city, which is a good cause for a libel suit. It not only bad, but hideous. It also contained a write-up of him, which, in the main, is correct.

The finance committee has finished its investigation of ex-City Clerk Murphy's books, and will make its report at the meeting of the council next Monday night. We understand that the committee has found the total shortage to be a little over $1,400.

The production of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" at the opera house last evening to a fair sized audience, was a very creditable performance. The impersonation of the Little Lord by Little Mabel Walsh, was the best piece of child-acting we have ever seen. The company is a strong one, and deserved better patronage than it received.

D. W. Whitford is now nicely settled in his new quarters on Front street, with as fine a line of home goods as can be found in the Northwest. His stock of robes, blankets and harness is complete, and contains the very latest in regard to style and quality. Another point Mr. Whitford desires the public to be informed on is that his prices are the bottom, and he will not be undersold, a fact that can be verified by calling at his store near the post-office.

A. E. Veon has moved his jewelry store from Seventh street into the center store room of the new Gardner block, which he has fitted up in fine shape with new show cases and store fixtures. He has also received a large addition of goods of the latest styles and designs to his already magnificent stock of jewelry, which, owing to his lack of room in his old quarter, he was unable to properly display. In his fine new quarters he has ample room, and will be pleased to receive his many friends and customers. Those in need of jewelry and silverware of any description, will find it to their interest to call at Veon's, look at his fine stock and get prices before purchasing elsewhere. As heretofore, repairing of all kinds will be done promptly and with care.

Halloween Party.
The Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, have issued invitations for a Halloween party, at Odd Fellows hall, (to-morrow) Saturday evening, Oct. 31st. Refreshments will be served, dancing will be indulged, and a good social time is expected. Tickets, including supper, 75 cents per couple.

Death's Victim.

Mrs. Sarah Langtree, wife of C. J. Langtree, who lives near Pillager, several miles west of here, died on Monday, Oct. 26th, of heart failure, aged 57 years. Her remains were buried in Evergreen cemetery in this city on Wednesday, the funeral services being conducted at the M. E. church. Mr. and Mrs. Langtree resided in this city several years ago. Mr. Langtree being employed by the N. P. company at the round house. This deceased had many friends here who greatly mourn her loss.

Annual Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society, of the First Congregational church, was held at the residence of Mrs. B. A. Ferris, on Wednesday afternoon. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. A. E. Losey.
Vice President—Mrs. N. D. Root.
Secretary—Mrs. T. J. Sharkey.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. F. Ferris.
The report of the treasurer for the past year shows the society to be in a flourishing condition, and a great aid in church work. The receipts of the society for the past year were nearly $700, and the expenditures nearly $500, leaving a balance of about $200 in the treasury. Among the purchases of the society for the past year is the new church organ, probably the best instrument of its kind in the city.

A Horse on Havill.

Last week's Royaltan Banner says: "O. H. Havill was somewhat surprised when he returned home from Minneapolis last Monday evening to find the band waiting for him and also Boyd's best team hitched to a canopy top carriage. As he stepped off the train friends shook his hand and wished him much joy, and before he had time to resist he was ushered to the buggy, helped in and driven to the bank, the band playing the while. He wanted to know what all this demonstration signified. Then he was told that a dispatch with his name attached had been received by W. L. McGonigle on Thursday telling of his marriage and asking Mac to set up the band to the bride. Havill says he never sent any such dispatch, and that he is not married. Someone has perpetrated a huge joke. But John O. H. led the procession and did the square thing by the boys."

Mr. J. E. Edwards and Miss Lillie Priest were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of the bride's parents in Southeast Brainerd, on Thursday evening, Oct. 29th, Rev. W. M. Wright, of the M. E. church, officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few of the more intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. Both the bride and the groom are well known in the city, having resided here for several years. The groom, an employee at the N. P. shops, is a young man of sterling qualities, and a general favorite among his acquaintances. The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Priest, is a young lady of many accomplishments and a great favorite in the social circles of that portion of the city. The DISPATCH and their many friends wish them unalloyed happiness in their new relation.

The father and brother of the groom from Mandan, and an uncle of the bride, from Motley, were in attendance at the wedding.

A Former Brainerdite Married.
The following from the Ft. Madison Plain Dealer, is an account of the marriage of Charles Taylor, formerly of this city, and Miss Winona Crepes, an estimable young lady of Ft. Madison:

The home of Reuben Crepes, 906 Fifth street, last evening was filled with happy hearts, and with smiling faces and lovely flowers the scene was a beautiful one. But prettiest of all was the ceremony performed by Rev. Dr. Geo. D. Stewart, which united the destinies of Mr. Charles Taylor, of Chicago, and Miss Winona Crepes, a granddaughter of Mr. Crepes. Congratulations followed, and hearty ones they were after which a sumptuous wedding feast was served. The wedding march—"Mendelssohn"—was performed in a splendid manner by Miss Lena Becker. The bride was lovely in a brown camel hair traveling dress. She is a lady of refinement and who will in her future home win a large friendship as she has here. Her acquaintances can but think that Mr. Taylor has won a gem, one who will make his life happy. The groom is a young man well and favorably known here, where he has not long since resided. He holds a lucrative position as clerk in the office of his father, A. E. Taylor, general roadmaster of the Santa Fe, with office in Chicago. The happy couple departed at 9:30 for the east. After the 28th inst., they will be at home at 141 Garfield Boulevard, Chicago. Shortly before their departure they were given an enjoyable serenade by the mandolin orchestra.

The Wilson Theatre Company.

Another crowded house greeted the Wilson Theatre Company in their production of "The White Slave," a realistic drama illustrating Southern life in slavery days, at the Princess last night. The drama is very similar to Uncle Tom's Cabin, and to judge by the enthusiastic applause rendered by the audience it was certainly a success. Little Dot Farley in her dances received well deserved encores. Miss Pearl Light, in her song and dance with Mr. Ed. O'Connor, in his song "He stood on the bridge," merited the scores they received. To-night "Silver Spur" will hold the boards; to-morrow, "Only a Farmer's Daughter" for the matinee, and "Noble Outcast" will close the engagement on Saturday night.—Minneapolis Free Press, Friday Oct. 2, 1891.

The above named popular company will be here all of next week. Prices 10c., 20c. and 30c. On Monday evening the "Galley Slave" will be played.

THE GROWTH OF HYPNOTISM.

Found Under Different Names at All Periods of Human History.

The history of hypnotism, says Dr. Lays in a Fortnightly Review, forms part of the history of the marvelous in human existence. Any one may satisfy himself by reading special books on this subject. The scope of this article does not allow me to lay any further stress upon it. In reality, hypnotism is found under different names at all periods of history, from the incantations of the ancient Egyptian magicians down to the fascinations of Mesmer and the investigations of Braid. These two persons began to separate the wheat from the chaff, and went so far as to show what was real and truly scientific in that series of fanciful practices, bordering on witchcraft, which, under the most varied aspects, have many believers in the credulous who are always prone to swallow marvels.

Modern hypnotism owes its name and appearance in the realm of science to the investigations made by Braid. He is its true creator; he made it what it is, and, above all, he gave emphasis to the experiments made by means of which it proved that, when hypnotic phenomena are called into play, they are wholly independent of any supposed influence of the hypnotist upon the hypnotized; and that the hypnotized person simply reacts upon himself by reason of latent capacities in him which are artificially developed.

Braid demonstrated that in this series of remarkable phenomena hypnotism, acting upon a human subject as upon a fellow field, merely set in motion a string of silent faculties which only needed its assistance to reach their development. Here we obviously have a new idea and a phenomena of the first importance which constitutes one of the most interesting axioms of the question.

In this field of new research Braid had further opportunity of evincing his sagacity in many other particular, and it may be said of him that he foresaw the different stages of hypnotism just as they have been since defined in France. He perceived their different manifestations and he thus laid the first foundation of the structure which has been so fortunately developed by workers in different countries, and which for the future constitutes an entirely new chapter in general neurology.

"Hypnotism," says Braid, "does not comprise only one condition; it is rather a series of different points, capable of infinite variety, extending from the lightest dreams in which the natural functions are intensified, to the profoundest state of coma, from which the consciousness and the will are completely absent." In another place he speaks with more detail about hypnotic coma. We are right, therefore, in saying that he foresaw and described the different phases of hypnotic phenomena, both the lethargy, which he calls coma, and the state of catalepsy and somnambulism, which he described in very clear language.

Six Potatoes to a Load.

I was amused a few days since in watching a company of laborers at work digging potatoes in a field in a valley of the Rimac, writes a traveler from Peru in the Philadelphia Call. A team of oxen plowed up the hillside, a light horse, leaving the tubers exposed on the ground. Six Indian workmen picked up the potatoes and carried them to a pile in one corner of the field, while the oxen, a Spaniard stood in majestic and dignified idleness watching the work. The men who were picking up the potatoes had neither pail, bag nor box in which to carry them. Two of them put the potatoes in their hats and the others carried them in their hands, each one going from every part of the field to the piles in one corner, carrying five or six potatoes each trip. Here were eight men and a team of oxen engaged in doing work which in America would be done by one man and a boy.

Any person who feels like despairing, because the world has not gone with him, should try first of all, to figure out to what extent the world is to blame for his failure, and to what extent he himself is to blame. If he has not failed himself for success, it is his own fault that success has not come to him.

Dr. Howes, of Grand Rapids, was in the city the first of the week.

H. C. Stivers attended the democratic pow wow in Minneapolis on Tuesday.

Mr. T. L. McGinnis and sister, Miss Sadie Reddy, of Staples, were visiting friends in Brainerd last week.

Wm. Paine is repairing his residence property on Norwood street that was damaged by fire some time ago.

The old favorites, the Wilson Theatre Co., will be at the opera house next week. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

I. N. Smith and George Leopold, of Staples, came down to Brainerd on Sunday to get a taste of city life.

W. H. Onstine and Dan McIntosh returned on Wednesday night from their hunting trip up the river. They report a pleasant time.

From the Presto Change we learn that Chas. Kinkade, of this city, has sold his interest in the meat market in that little village.

Mayor Hagberg says he is going to have special police in all parts of the city Halloween night. Boys, look out or you'll get pulled.

Archie Bondy, master mechanics' chief clerk at Livingston, Mont., was in the city last Friday and Saturday, renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. Wm. Tracy is so far recovered that she was able to go to Brainerd this week to spend a short time with her people.—Presto Change.

I. N. Smith returned from Canada Saturday, and is again attending to his large real estate and insurance business.—Presto Change.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a coffee on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 3rd, with Mrs. Olson, on Bluff Avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets north. All the ladies are cordially invited.

Misses Lulu and Jennie Young, of Pittsburg, Penn., arrived in the city Monday evening, and will remain here several weeks visiting their aunt, Mrs. M. McFadden.

Eight or ten couple of Brainerd young people went to Staples on Monday night to attend a dance given by the Sylvan Social Club of that little burg.

W. S. McClenahan, of Brainerd, who with a party has been hunting around Sandy Lake, passed through here on his way home Wednesday. He was not very enthusiastic.—Atkin Age.

The members of St. Francis Catholic church will hold their annual bazaar at the roller skating rink for one week, commencing Monday, Nov. 16th, and concluding Saturday night, Nov. 21st.

Mr. Axel Magnuson and Miss Lena Gustafson, both of this city, were married at the residence of Mr. Pederson, on Tuesday, Oct. 27th, 1891, the Rev. O. J. Wagnild performing the ceremony.

The lumber firm of Laughlin & Billings, doing business near Ft. Ripley, in this county, has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. B. F. Laughlin continuing the business.

A cobweb basket social will be given to-night (Friday) by the ladies of the Baptist church, at the residence of Miss May Campbell, on Fourth street north. All are cordially invited to attend.

H. P. Swartz, of Crown Point, Ind., is in the city, the guest of his brother, Mr. K. Swartz. Mr. Swartz will remain about three weeks, spending most of his time hunting.

The Wilson Theatre Co. in an entirely new repertoire will appear next week. They are stronger and better than ever before. Don't fail to see them. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

All kinds of farm produce, hay, wood, etc., taken in exchange for blacksmithing at Burrell & Lynch's city shoeing shop, on Fifth street, between Laurel and Front streets.

Lawyer J. H. Warner, who was in partnership with J. N. True here some time ago, but who has resided in Yellow Medicine county for several months past, has moved back to this city and opened a law office.

M. K. Swartz has this week put in a fine oak show case in his drug store, which he will use to exhibit his large stock of musical instruments. He has also added a fine oak table and two show cases for fancy stationery to his store fixtures. They are a decided improvement.

C. B. King, for many years a resident of Brainerd, but lately general foreman of the shops at Livingston, Mont., was in the city the first of the week. He was on his way back to Livingston from Michigan, where he had taken his aged mother on account of her poor health while living in Montana.

Mrs. Magdalena Robinson, for many years proprietor of what is known as "Swartz's brick yard," in this city, has sold out all her property interests here, and is going out west with her husband and trying farming for awhile. Her interest in the brick yard has been purchased by J. W. Koop, we understand.

The Augusta Ohrstrom Concert Co., at the opera house last Friday night, was greeted by a fair sized, though very appreciative audience. The company is an excellent one, every member being an artist of ability. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church, under whose auspices the concert was given, cleared nearly $40 by the venture.

Leopold Phantzen, the Sixth street wagon maker and blacksmith, has sold his shop to J. Sears, of Little Falls, who will greatly enlarge the building by putting on an extension in the rear 30 feet long. This extension will be built to accommodate an engine and boiler to use in running the machinery of the shop. The greatly increasing business has made the introduction of steam power a necessity.

A. Atherton killed two bears on Little Pine on Tuesday.

The Duluth Tribune says that Dr. John R. Howes, of Grand Rapids, returned Wednesday from a visit to Washington.

Mr. J. B. Sargent and lady, who have been spending the summer on Gail Lake at their summer resort, have gone to Detroit.

To-morrow night is All Halloween night, and it behooves the average citizen to make fast his gate, or the small boy will carry it hence.

Alderman P. M. Lagerquist has returned from his farm near Grand Forks, North Dakota, where he has been for three weeks past. He says that the total yield of wheat on his farm was 3,000 bushels, or 30 bushels to the acre. He suffered very little damage from the wet weather.

The Spokane Review, of last Sunday, contains a picture of P. Mertz, formerly of Brainerd, but now chief of police of that bustling western city, which is a good cause for a libel suit. It is not only bad, but hideous. It also contained a write-up of him, which, in the main, is correct.

The finance committee has finished its investigation of ex-City Clerk Murphy's books, and will make its report at the meeting of the council next Monday night. We understand that the committee has found the total shortage to be a little over $1,400.

The production of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" at the opera house last evening to a fair sized audience, was a very creditable performance. The impersonation of the Little Lord by Little Mabel Walsh, was the best piece of child-acting we have ever seen. The company is a strong one, and deserved better patronage than it received.

D. W. Whitford is now nicely settled in his new quarters on Front street, with as fine a line of horse goods as can be found in the Northwest. His stock of robes, blankets and harness is complete, and contains the very latest in regard to style and quality. Another point Mr. Whitford desires the public to be informed on is that his prices are the bottom, and he will not be undersold, a fact that can be verified by calling at his store near the post-office.

A. E. Veon has moved his jewelry store from Seventh street into the center store room of the new Gardner block, which he has fitted up in fine shape with new show cases and store fixtures. He has also received a large addition of goods of the latest styles and designs to his already magnificent stock of jewelry, which, owing to his lack of room in his old quarters, he was unable to properly display. In his fine new quarters he has ample room, and will be pleased to receive his many friends and customers. Those in need of jewelry and silverware of any description, will find it to their interest to call at Veon's, look at his fine stock and get prices before purchasing elsewhere. As heretofore, repairing of all kinds will be done promptly and with care.

This very beautiful maiden swinging all alone,
Thinking of the past, where all her youth
has flown;
For she is also thinking of the latest styles,
For he upon the counters is brilliant, gorgeous piles.
For aside from all the beauties spread on the counters there,
She receives polite attention, as do the young
and fair;
She knows just where to go, long experience
has taught her,
And she goes to HENRY I. COHEN'S,
Just as she "oughter."

Local News Notes.

Wilson Theatre Co. next week.

Dr. Howes, of Grand Rapids, was in the city the first of the week.

H. C. Silvers attended the democratic pow wow in Minneapolis on Tuesday.

Mrs. T. L. McGinnis and sister, Miss Sadie Kelly, of Staples, were visiting friends in Brainerd last week.

Wm. Paine is repairing his residence property on Norwood street that was damaged by fire some time ago.

The old favorites, the Wilson Theatre
Co., will be at the opera house next week. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

I. N. Smith and George Leopold, of Staples, came down to Brainerd on Sunday to get a taste of city life.

W. H. Oustine and Dan McIntosh returned on Wednesday night from their hunting trip up the river. They report a pleasant time.

From the Presto Change we learn that Chas. Kinkade, of this city, has sold his interest in the meat market
at that little village.

Mayor Hagberg says he is going to have special police in all parts of the city Halloween night. Boys, look out or you'll get pulled.

Archy Bondy, master mechanics' chief clerk at Livingston, Mont., was in the city last Friday and Saturday, renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. Wm. Tracy is so far recovered that she was able to go to Brainerd this week to spend a short time with her people—Presto Change.

I. N. Smith returned from Canada Saturday, and is again attending to his large real estate and insurance business.—Presto Change.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a coffee on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 3rd, with Mrs. Olson, on Bluff Avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets north. All the ladies are cordially invited.

Misses Lulu and Jennie Young, of Pittsburg, Penn., arrived in the city
Monday evening, and will remain here
several weeks visiting their aunt, Mrs.
M. McFadden.

Eight or ten couple of Brainerd
young people went to Staples on Monday night to attend a dance given by the Sylvan Social Club of that little village.

W. S. McClenahan, of Brainerd, who with a party has been hunting around Sandy Lake, passed through here on his way home Wednesday. He was not very enthusiastic.—Aitkin Age.

The members of St. Francis Catholic church will hold their annual bazaar at the roller skating rink for one week, commencing Monday, Nov.
16th, and concluding Saturday night,
Nov. 21st.

Mr. Axel Magnuson and Miss Lena Gustafson, both of this city, were married at the residence of Mr. Pederson, on Tuesday, Oct. 27th, 1891, the Rev. O. J. Wagnild performing the ceremony.

The lumber firm of Laughlin & Billings, doing business near Ft. Ripley, in this county, has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. B. F. Laughlin containing the business.

A cobweb basket social will be given to-night (Friday) by the ladies of the Baptist church, at the residence of Miss May Campbell, on Fourth street north. All are cordially invited to attend.

H. P. Swartz, of Crown Point, Ind.,
is in the city, the guest of his brother,
M. K. Swartz. Mr. Swartz will remain about three weeks, spending most of his time hunting.

The Wilson Theatre Co. in an entirely new repertoire will appear next week. They are stronger and better than ever before. Don't fail to see them. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

All kinds of farm produce, hay, wood, etc., taken in exchange for blacksmithing at Burrell & Lynch's
city shoeing shop, on Fifth street,
between Laurel and Front streets.

Lawyer J. H. Warner, who was in partnership with J. N. True here some time ago, but who has resided in Yellow Medicine county for several months past, has moved back to this city and opened a law office.

M. K. Swartz has this week put in a fine oak show case in his drug store, which he will use to exhibit his large stock of musical instruments. He has also added a fine oak table and two show cases for fancy stationery to his store fixtures. They are a decided improvement.

C. B. King, for many years a resident of Brainerd, but lately general
foreman of the shops at Livingston, Mont., was in the city the first of the week. He was on his way back to Livingston from Michigan, where he had taken his aged mother on account of her poor health while living in Montana.

Mrs. Magdalena Robinson, for many years proprietor of what is known as "Swartz's brick yard," in this city, has sold out all her property interests here,
and is going out west with her husband and trying farming for awhile.
Her interest in the brick yard has been purchased by J. W. Koop, we understand.

The Augusta Ohlstrom Concert Co., at the opera house last Friday night,
was greeted by a fair sized, though very appreciative audience. The company is an excellent one, every member being an artist of ability. The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church, under whose auspices the concert was given, cleared nearly $40 by the venture.

Leopold Phantzen, the Sixth street
wagon maker and blacksmith, has sold his shop to J. Sears, of Little Falls, who will greatly enlarge the building
by putting on an extension to the rear 30 feet long. This extension will be built to accommodate an engine and boiler to use in running the machinery of the shop. The greatly increasing business has made the introduction of steam power a necessity.

A. Atherton killed two bears on Little Pine on Tuesday.

The Duluth Tribune says that Dr.
John R. Howes, of Grand Rapids, returned Wednesday from a visit to Washington.

Mr. J. B. Sargent and lady, who have been spending the summer on Gull Lake at their summer resort,
have gone to Detroit.

To-morrow night is All Halloween night, and it behooves the average citizen to make fast his gate, or the small boy will carry it hence.

Mr. E. E. Warren and Miss Tilley
B. Berg, both of Garrison, this county, were married in this city on Tuesday evening, Oct. 27th. Judge C. E.
Chipfield performing the ceremony.

F. B. Johnson, H. McGinnis and N.
H. Ingersoll have just concluded a successful hunt of one week's duration, having secured two fish and one and hen. The boys report a most enjoyable (1) time.

Alderman P. M. Lagerquist has returned from his farm near Grand Forks, North Dakota, where he has been for three weeks past. He says that the total yield of wheat on his farm was 3,000 bushels, or 30 bushels to the acre. He suffered very little damage from the wet weather.

The Spokane Review, of last Sunday, contains a picture of P. Mertz, formerly of Brainerd, but now chief of police of that bustling western city, which is a good cause for a libel suit. It is not only bad, but hideous.
It also contained a write-up of him,
which, in the main, is correct.

The finance committee has finished its investigation of ex-City Clerk Murphy's books, and will make its report at the meeting of the council next Monday night. We understand that the committee has found the total shortage to be a little over $1,400.

The production of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" at the opera house last evening to a fair sized audience, was a very creditable performance. The impersonation of the Little Lord by Little Mabel Walsh, was the best piece of child-acting we have ever seen. The company is a strong one,
and deserved better patronage than it received.

D. W. Whitford is now nicely settled in his new quarters on Front street, with as fine a line of home goods as can be found in the Northwest. His stock of robes, blankets and harness is complete, and contains the very latest in regard to style and quality. Another point Mr. Whitford desires the public to be informed on is that his prices are the bottom, and he will not be undersold, a fact that can be verified by calling at his store near the post-office.

A. E. Veon has moved his jewelry store from Seventh street into the center store room of the new Gardner block, which he has fitted up in fine shape with new show cases and store fixtures. He has also received a large addition of goods of the latest styles and designs to his already magnificent stock of jewelry, which, owing to his lack of room in his old quarter, he was unable to properly display. In his fine new quarters he has ample room,
and will be pleased to receive his many friends and customers. Those in need of jewelry and silverware of any description, will find it to their interest to call at Veon's, look at his fine stock and get prices before purchasing elsewhere. As heretofore, repairing of all kinds will be done promptly and with care.

The Wilson Theatre Company,
Another crowded house greeted the Wilson Theatre Company in their production of the White Slave, a realistic drama illustrating Southern life in slavery days, at the Princess last night. The drama is very similar to Uncle Tom's Cabin, and to judge by the enthusiastic applause rendered by the audience it was certainly a success.
Little Dot Farley in her dances received well deserved honors. Miss Pearl Hight, in her song and dance,
and Mr. Ed. O'Connor, in his song
"He stood on the bridge," merited the accolades they received. To-night "Silver Spurs" will be the feature of the evening, "Only a Farmer's Daughter,"
for the matinee, and "Noble Outcast"
will close the engagement on Saturday night.—Monticla Free Press, Friday,
Oct. 2, 1891.

The above named popular company will be here all of next week. Prices 10c., 20c. and 30c. On Monday evening the "Galley Slave" will be staged.

Things Worth Remembering.
That it is dangerous to stand near a tall tree or spire during a thunder storm; that the southwest corner of the cellar is the "cyclone safety point"; that there is no medicine so universally applicable to sickness as fresh air and sunshine; that blowing at the gas, before retiring, is funny to everybody, except the man who ries it; that you may swear as hard as you please, but it will not remove grease spots; that the Wisconsin Central is the most popular route to Milwaukee, Chicago, and points East and South.—Jan. 2, '92.

The Tie That Binds.

Mr. J. E. Edwards and Miss Lillie Priest were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of the bride's parents in Southeast Brainerd,
on Thursday evening, Oct. 29th, Rev.
W. M. Wright, of the M. E. church, officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few of the more intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. Both the bride and the groom are well known in the city, having resided here for several years.
The groom, an employee at the N. P.
shops, is a young man of sterling qualities, and a general favorite among his acquaintances. The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Priest, is a young lady of many accomplishments and a great favorite in the social circles of that portion of the city. The Dispatch and their many friends wish them unalloyed happiness in their new relation.

The father and brother of the groom from Mandan, and an uncle of the bride, from Motley, were in attendance at the wedding.

A Former Brainerdite Married.
The following from the Ft. Madison Plain Dealer, is an account of the marriage of Charles Taylor, formerly of this city, and Miss Winona Crepes, an estimable young lady of Ft. Madison:

The home of Reuben Crepes, 906
Fifth street, last evening was filled with happy hearts, and with smiling faces and lovely flowers the scene was a beautiful one. But prettier of all was the ceremony performed by Rev.
Dr. Geo. D. Stewart, which united
the destinies of Mr. Charles Taylor,
of Chicago, and Miss Winona Crepes,
a granddaughter of Mr. Crepes.
Congratulations followed, and hearty ones were after which a sumptuous wedding feast was served. The wedding march—Mendelssohn's—was performed in a splendid manner by Miss Lena Becker. The bride was lovely in a brown camel hair traveling dress. She is a lady of refinement and who will in her future home win
a large friendship as she has here.
